PREMIUM REFUND

If for any reason Your insurance terminates before the end of the term that You selected, a premium refund may be payable. If Your insurance terminates within 30 days after the Date Insurance Begins, the entire Insurance Premium (including IPT for Quebec Residents) will be refunded.

A premium refund will be calculated using the Rule of 78's formula shown below. Refer to the Group Policy for a table showing the Rule of 78's premium.

Premium refund = $[(R \times (R+1)) / (T \times (T+1))] \times P$, where

R= the number of full months from the date the Borrower's insurance terminated to the end of the Term of Insurance;

T= the Term of Insurance in months; and

P= the Insurance Premium (including IPT for Quebec

Residents) paid by the Borrower.

If the Term of Insurance is different for Life Insurance than for Total Disability Insurance, then a premium refund will be calculated separately for each and summed to determine Your total refund.

Pro-rata refunds are not available under this Plan.

The premium refund will be paid only to the Creditor to be applied to reduce or to extinguish Your Loan.

However, We may extend this deadline to a maximum of one year if You can show reasonable cause for delay.

In the case of Total Disability, You may also be required to provide proof of earnings, satisfactory to the Insurer, including but not limited to, a certified Notice of Assessment from Canada Revenue Agency. Failure to provide proof of claim within the time set out above will not invalidate a claim if proof is given as soon as reasonably possible and in no event later than one year from the date of the event giving rise to the Life or Total Disability claim if it is shown that it was not reasonably possible to furnish proof within such time.

Limitation of Actions and Claims

Every action or proceeding against an insurer for the recovery of insurance money payable under the contract is absolutely barred unless commenced within the time set out in the Insurance Act or the Limitations Act, 2002 or other applicable legislation in Your province of residence.
