Attachment 1

Your Duty of Disclosure:

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

It is important that all information provided in support of your application for insurance is understood by you and is correct, as you will be bound by your answers and by the information provided by you. If you do not understand any part of this notice, you should obtain independent advice.

Your duty of disclosure continues after your application for insurance has been completed up until the contract of insurance is entered into.

Consequences of Non-Disclosure:

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, Chubb may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, Chubb may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Change of Risk or Circumstances:

You should advise Chubb as soon as practicable of any change to your normal business as disclosed to Chubb prior to entering into the contract of insurance. This includes every change materially affecting the facts or circumstances existing at the commencement of this insurance, or at any subsequent renewal date.

Subrogation:

Where you have agreed with another person or company, who would otherwise be liable to compensate you for or contribute towards any loss or damage which is covered by the policy, that you will not seek to recover such loss or damage or contribution from that person, Chubb will not cover you, to the extent permitted by law, for such loss or damage or contribution.
