Her Story

When Rachel was overseas on a month-long holiday, a blackout occurred and electricity supply was disrupted in her home.

The power to her wine chiller was left unrestored, causing significant damage to her extensive wine collection - including some rare and hard-to-replace wines.

Rachel was thankful she could replace her prized wine collection and poured herself a glass to celebrate.

After speaking to her Masterpiece claims representative, she received a full payout of $$500,000 - the total sum insured of her wine collection based on the purchase price, including wines that were no longer available.

Rachel was worried that her Chubb Masterpiece Insurance would not cover her wine collection.
