

Measures to Prevent the Escalation of Damage

The insured must take appropriate measures prevent the damage from spreading further.

In the case the goods are only partially wet, quickly separate the wet items from the dry ones, and then dry or air them out.

Maintaining damaged goods in suitable conditions:
Store them in a warehouse, not leaving them outside.

Any expenses incurred from necessary actions can be claimed from the company.

