

Property and Electrical Appliance Insurance

The insurance policy covers damages resulting from unexpected events or accidents, including theft involving the use of force. Claims must be reported within 14 days from the date of the incident, and this policy does not cover damages incurred during the transportation of goods.

The Categories of Property

Mobile electronic devices
such as mobile phones, tablets, and gadgets.

Electrical appliances including televisions, audio equipment, household appliances, computers, monitors, etc.

Miscellaneous items
general property such as fashion items, furniture, household goods, jewelry, collectibles, home decor, etc.

The Categories of Damage

Damage from accidents refers to severe harm to property resulting from unexpected events or accidents, such as breakage or impact.

Loss due to theft
involves the disappearance or damage caused by the use of force to commit robbery, theft, or other criminal acts.

Damage from natural disasters includes harm caused by fire, lightning, explosions, water damage, and other natural calamities.

- Conditions shall be in accordance with the Policy.
- Applicant shall study the Benefits, Declarations, Policy Wording for the full terms, conditions, and exclusions prior to buying an insurance.
- underwritten by Chubb Samaggi Insurance Public Company Limited