

Miscellaneous Professional Liability

Miscellaneous Professional Liability ('MPL') is designed for service providers for which a specialized insurance product does not exist. Often, service providers must show proof of errors & omissions insurance to satisfy a contractual requirement, and MPL coverage can help companies dealing with allegations such as:

- > Errors or omissions that occurred during the provision of a professional service.
- > Failure to provide a professional service or failure to provide such service on time.
- ➤ Failure to meet the customer's expectations.

With over 25 years of providing Miscellaneous Professional Liability insurance in the market, Chubb's Professional ERMSM product is tailored to address the specific exposures of more than 75 professions, including:
